

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

WESLEY WEIDNER,

Plaintiff(s),

v.

STATE OF NEVADA, et al.,

Defendant(s).

Case No.: 2:16-cv-02301-KJD-NJK

Order

[Docket No. 64]

Pending before the Court is a stipulation to prohibit certain lines of questioning. Docket No. 64. So long as doing so does not interfere with Court proceedings, parties are generally able to enter stipulations without Court approval. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 29(b); Local Rule 7-1. It is not clear that the pending stipulation requires Court approval and, accordingly, it is DENIED without prejudice.¹

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: June 11, 2018

Nancy J. Koppe
United States Magistrate Judge

¹ The stipulation is somewhat vague. To the extent the parties believe Court approval is required, they shall file an amended stipulation within seven days explaining why that is so.